

Crescent Valley Ski Racing Team
Ski Camp & Overnight Travel Code of Conduct

Involvement in Crescent Valley Athletics and Activities is an honor and a privilege. CVSRT Skiers represent their Ski Team, Crescent Valley High School, and their community; therefore, behavior during travel is to be exemplary.

During overnight travel CVSRT members agree to:

Abide by the CVHS Athletic Code of Conduct (containing Academic Policy, Alcohol and Drug Policy, Citizenship Policy, and Lettering Policy).

Abide by the CVSRT Travel Code of Conduct.

Abide by curfew time set by coaches or chaperones. Room check will follow; anyone not in their rooms will have appropriate consequences. Opposite sex members are not allowed in bedrooms, visiting in communal rooms only. Room assignments designated by the coaches need to be followed.

Respect the property of location we are staying at at all times.

Signatures below indicate assurance that the racer and parent fully understand the Overnight Travel Code of Conduct. Failure to follow these guidelines could result in a suspension from the athletic program and/or other consequences determined by the coaches and/or the athletic director.
